Who am I

Hi, I am Charlotte a pageant and fashion photographer based in the UK.

With a fashion degree, art background and being a pageant girl myself it's no surprise I am now in the career I am.

Each year I travel across Europe offering destination shoots for my pageant clients and love to bring brands on this journey with me. Whether its to shoot your campaign with me and the team or sponsoring clothes for the shoot.

I have my own studio in Leeds which is perfect for e-commerce.

I will be in Rome this September 27th - 30th
