

MALLORCA

May 28th - 31st

Mallorca

This year's Mallorca destination shoot is all about sun-soaked elegance, effortless beauty, and a little extra variety. For the mornings, we're mixing things up: two sessions will take place in Fornells, and two in Palma. You can choose which morning location suits you best. Each shoot will feel unique, with fresh backdrops and new scenery, while keeping the same dreamy, cinematic imagery that Mallorca is known for.

Afternoon sessions will take place in Santa Ponsa, giving you a perfect mix of stunning beach shots and stylish street imagery.

Whether you're booking a solo confidence-boosting session, a couples' shoot, or simply want to capture yourself in one of the world's most beautiful locations, this experience is designed to make you feel like a VIP. With golden Mediterranean light, breathtaking backdrops, and my signature editorial storytelling approach, we'll create timeless, magazine-worthy images. Think flowing dresses, barefoot strolls along the coast, and that perfect balance of soft yet sharp imagery that defines my work.

Let's make magic in Mallorca in 2026!

WHAT'S ON OFFER?

Morning Sessions – Palma or Fornells

All morning shoots will begin at our apartment in Santa Ponsa, before heading out to the first location. Each day, sessions will alternate between Palma and Fornells, so you can choose your preferred setting when booking. Both offer a similar aesthetic, with subtle differences in backdrop—perfect for returning clients looking for something new. Across the session, we'll shoot 4 different outfits in a variety of carefully selected locations, giving you a diverse, editorial portfolio.

Afternoon Sessions – Santa Ponsa

For those drawn to soft, golden beach imagery, afternoon sessions will take place in Santa Ponsa. Expect a mix of stunning coastal locations, including secluded beaches, dramatic cliffs, textured rocky landscapes, and relaxed local cafés that bring an effortless European feel to your images.

You'll also shoot 4 outfit changes across multiple spots, creating a strong mix of beach and lifestyle imagery.

Shoot Details

Timing

Choose between a sunrise session (approximately 6:00 AM) or a sunset session (approximately 5:00 PM).

Duration

Each shoot lasts around 3 hours.

I photograph two clients per session to ensure a relaxed, enjoyable experience. While I aim to pair clients with similar experience levels where possible, this isn't essential. Each person receives equal time in front of the camera, with slight variations depending on light and location.

This format has always worked beautifully—many clients arrive as strangers and leave having formed genuine connections.
